ATTENTION PROPERTY OWNERS

Report Damage Due to Hurricane Harvey to the Appraisal District

If your property was adversely affected because of Hurricane Harvey or any other reason and it was not repaired or replaced prior to January 1 of 2018, please let us know. This could mean a reduction in your property value for tax purposes for the 2018 tax year. Property owners are encouraged to report any damage incurred to their property due to Hurricane Harvey to the Calhoun County Appraisal District. This can be done electronically by email or in person at the appraisal district office located at 426 W. Main in Port Lavaca. Appraisers are currently working throughout the county in the annual reappraisal. Property is appraised according to market value as of January 1, of each year.
